President Halsey To Greet Students At the Klein Today

President James H. Halsey will officially greet all students enrolled for the Fall semester today at 10:30 A. M. at a president's convocation in the Klein Auditorium. Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, vice-president, will preside.

Following the invocation by the Rev. Dr. Henry H. Alderson, of the First Methodist Church, Dr. Littlefield will introduce the University's deans and directors. The Scripture reading will be given by Father David F. Bannon of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church. President Halsey will present his welcoming address to be followed by the singing of the alma mater and the benediction by Rabbi Albert L. Martin of the Park Avenue Temple. Miss Barbara Voorhees, '53, will be organist.

Freshman Coeds Turn Out in Force To Capture Crown

UB's most beautiful freshman coeds gathered together last Thursday night in Bishop Hall to meet the press in preparation for the Freshman Queen Contest tonight.

The seventeen candidates for the title of "Freshman Queen" pictured below were selected during registration by a committee composed of student council officers and Freshman Week leaders.

Tonight they will appear in formal attire before the judges who will vote one of them "Freshman Queen of 1950." The queen's identity will remain a closely guarded secret until the announcement and her appearance at Friday night's gala Football Hop. She will also reign over Saturday's football tussle with Ithaca.

The judges for the contest will be: Mrs. Frances Buonnanno, director of the Mademoiselle School of Modeling; Mrs. Connecticut; her husband, Anthony Buonnanno, noted hair stylist; Alfred Petrucci, state director of the Miss America Pageant, and Miss Bridgeport, UB's lovely Beverlee Burlant.

Dickason Sends Out Call For Campus Thunder Staff

With the announcement of Technical Call for tomorrow, Albert A. Dickason, director of the Office of Campus Productions, revealed that plans for a bigger and more spectacular production of UB's original musical, "Campus Thunder," are already in progress.

"The thunder will roar at the Klein Memorial Nov. 15 to 18," he said.

Freshman Week Festivities Help Break the Ice

Freshman Week got under way last Thursday evening with a Picnic and Songfest on the grounds of Marina Hall. The "ice-breaker" was a success with many freshmen joining Stew Baker in leading the festivities. Music and refreshments were provided and dancing in the Snack Bar and a showing of "The Knickerbocker Holiday" in the lecture hall followed.

Friday afternoon Freshman Convocation was held in the Klein Memorial Auditorium. This convocation called together all freshmen to acquaint them with the faculty and student government. President James H. Halsey, who presided at the meeting, introduced the deans and directors of the University's seven colleges and three divisions. Vice-President Henry W. Littlefield gave a welcoming address and Stewart Baker, Student Council president, introduced members of the student council. Immediately following convocation a student assembly was held for the purpose of orientation to Freshman Week and the "Wearing of the Beanie."

In the evening, a pep rally was held in front of Loyola Hall with U. B.'s grid mentors as guests. The hanging of Adelphi in effigy highlighted the program.

Saturday, the initial football contest against Adelphi College was played at Freeport Long Island. The returning team was feted in an open house and dance at Bishop Hall.

DR. READ HONORED

Dr. Eaton V. W. Read, dean of the College of Business Administration, has been appointed to the advisory committee of the National Business Education League.

Because "Campus Thunder, '51" promises to be bigger and more lavish than in previous years, a larger Technical Staff than ever is needed. All people interested in important 'behind-the-scenes' positions are asked to report to the Little Theatre, Fairfield Avenue, tomorrow at 7:30 P. M. Positions open include: Stage Manager; Stage Technicians; Script Girl; Wardrobe Mistress; Staff Artist; Art Assistants; Business Assistants; Light Men; Effects Men; Prop Men; Advertising and Publicity Assistants. All Students working on technical staff will receive points toward membership in "Knights of Thunder," the honorary drama fraternity on campus.

Mr. Dickason announced that this year's edition of "Campus Thunder" will not only bring back such traditional favorites as Fifi and the Thunderettes (New England's most interesting women) but will also include some surprises in the way of hilarious situations, spectacular lighting effects, and unusual dance staging.

Not only, as in previous years, will "Campus Thunder" have a completely original script, but for the first time, it will boast a completely original musical score. Mr. Sime Neary, veteran dance instructor and composer, who in the past has contributed original songs to productions, has this year written the entire score for the show, including songs, ballet, and background music.

For those students interested in acting, singing or dancing roles in the show, cast call will be held at the Little Theater on Oct 2 and 3.

REF KO'ed

Blondie Ely, former Carnegie Tech boxer, was groggy from the punches of Temple's Joe Bunsu, and in a last desperate effort unleashed a terrific swing that knocked Referee Morris unconscious for three minutes!

Presstime Bulletins

Chest X-rays and official University photographs will be taken Oct. 4-6 in Bishop Hall. All students are urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

X-rays will be taken from 9 to 5 on Oct. 4, for those with surnames A-G, on Oct. 5, H-P, and Oct. 6, Q-Z. Students who are unable to come on the fourth and fifth will be accepted on the sixth. Faculty and staff members and their families are also urged to have X-rays taken, but a fee of 85c will be collected.

The Student Council has designated Coupon Number One in the Student Activities Book for the Football Hop, to take place Friday night at the Ritz Ballroom from 8-12 P. M.

The NSA Campus Commission in co-operation with the Student Council is sponsoring a coke party and get-together tonight for freshmen in the Snack Bar. Tomorrow night the sororities will entertain freshmen girls in Bishop Hall.

The Scribe, temporarily located in the first floor rear of Cortright Hall, has been notified by Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, vice-president, that its new offices will be on the third floor of Westport Hall. According to Dr. Littlefield, these quarters should be ready for occupancy within the next four weeks.

koff, Barbara Reines, Jane Condiella, Isabel Montano and Marcia Laufer. And last but not least, we have, Phyllis Montanaro, Charlotte DeLuca, Nancy Gay, Gilda Grasso, Elizabeth Charney, and Bev Wasco. Kneeling in back are Jane Sweet and Jean Putnam.

Edith M. Patzelt Gets Maintenance Men's Scholarship

Edith M. Patzelt, a sophomore majoring in French, has been named as the first recipient of the twenty-five cents a week scholarship sponsored by the maintenance department.

Edith, who came to this country four years ago from Czechoslovakia, has maintained a "B" average during her freshman year, is a member of the French Club, and is secretary of the German Club. Her good standing won her the $225 half-tuition scholarship instituted last term for which each member of the 20-man maintenance department contributed 25 cents a week.

The scholarship winner was also awarded a full-tuition and board scholarship at Slovak Girl's Academy, Danville, Pa., where she was active in student activities. She graduated as valedictorian in 1949. Before coming to the United States, Edith spent one year in a Czechoslovakian high school and completed her second year in Bridgeport's Bassick High School. Her older brother is now serving in the United States Air Force.

Freshmen at the University of Holland are required to have their heads shaved to a high polish, and to make their life on campus more complicated, they are not permitted to use the doors in entering school buildings during their entire first year!

The University Library's newest additions include the receipt of books from five donors, whose names will be placed on a special bookplate in each volume. These gifts include the American and British Encyclopedia of Law from Stanley Resnick, Bridgeport; "The Therapeutics of Internal Diseases" from Dr. Roger terKulle, Bridgeport; "Connecticut Pioneers in Telepath" from the New Haven Southern New England Telephone Company; J. M. Proskauer's "Segment of My Times" from Attorney Henry A. Goldstein, Bridgeport; and Volumes "The Small White Bird," "Great Masters of Oratory" and "The Man From Blankley's" from Walter Heller, New York.

John Arthur Rassias, winner of the U. S. government Fulbright scholarship for a year's study in France, was recently a guest of honor at a reception given by the University's foreign language department. Two other students, also graduated from UB last May and honored with John were Paul Krofssik, who will do work at the Sorbonne in Paris, and Arthur Songhurst, who will work for an advanced degree at the University of Bordeaux, France.

Vice President Henry W. Littlefield has announced the appointment of W. P. Rupert, former purchasing agent at Champlain college, Plattsburgh, New York, as administrative assistant to cover purchasing and supervision of the snack bar and University book store. Mr. Rupert was graduated from Hobart college and Cornell with a master's degree in education and was a high school principal in New York state for several years.

Eighteen new nursing students enrolled in the University's College of Nursing were welcomed by veteran nurses last week in Bishop Hall lounge. Following a discussion of their programs for the coming semester the new students were entertained at a picnic in Beardsley Park. Miss Martha P. Jayne is dean of the College of Nursing.

Aristeia, the University's honor society, has elected Vincent C. Irving, who received his Bachelor's Degree last spring and is the University's recorder, as the new president.

Mr. Irving succeeds John Rassiasnow, President Emeritus of the society. Other newly elected officers are Warren O. Benson, vice-president; William Kost, secretary, and Bernard J. Bresosky, treasurer.

Dr. Robert H. W. Strang, director of the Fones School of Dental Hygiene, has announced the publication of the third edition of his book, "Textbook of Orthodontia." The other two editions of the book, published by the Lea and Febiger Publishing Company, Philadelphia, appeared in 1933 and 1943 and were used as the standard text in all dental schools throughout the country. The 900 page volume contains approximately 1,000 illustrations.

Plans for the 1951 Barnum Festival, which is closely related to UB's traditions and history, are already under way with President James H. Halsey as the new Ringmaster. In the 1950 Barnum Festival Parade the University won first prize in the float contest with an education panorama designed by several students.

Dr. Joseph S. Roucek, chairman of the department of sociology and political science, is editor of the special issue of the September publication of the "Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science" which deals with "Russia Satellites of Central-Eastern Europe." Dr. Roucek is also co-author of the book, "Introduction to Political Science" which appeared on the market in August.

Renovations have been made on the Walter Signor residence, on Linden Ave., which was recently acquired by the University to replace the loss of West Hall, a men's residence on the old Fairfield Ave. campus.

Meet Your New Student Council

Stewart Baker, Senior President

Roberta Oliner, Sophomore Recording Secretary

Robert Heath, Senior Vice President

Stewart Baker is the new president of the Student Council, as the result of student elections held last May. Stu was corresponding secretary of the first Student Council, three years ago.

Newcomers to the Council were James Quigley, Robert Downey, senior representatives; Sydney Litwak and Robert Beargall, junior representatives; Robert Coates, Roberta Oliner, William Kennedy, and Ronald Brandenburg, sophomore representatives. Since the election, however, three members of the Council have withdrawn. Ethyle Power, Senior; Barry McLaughlin and Dave Wiklund, Juniors. Next in line for the offices are Jack Shannon, for the Senior class; Edward J. Anderson, and Abe Gordon for the Junior class.

A major issue last May was the new Student Activities Ticket, which has since been put into being. At the Council's final meeting, three delegates Stewart Baker, Norden Hahn, and Boris Moskalenko were named to participate in the second National Congress of the National Student Association at the University of Michigan.

In 1923, The University of Buffalo raised an endowment fund of five million dollars in just ten days.

We Want News

The Scribe as a student newspaper serving the whole University family is your newspaper. We try to give a fair and unbiased view of UB and all that happens that is news. If you have something that you like printed that is news and does not violate ethics of good journalism we will try our best to publish it.

All pertinent facts that you may wish to submit should be jotted on a slip of paper, marked Scribe and dropped in the mail bags at Fones Hall, Howland Hall, Bishop Hall, the Engineering Technology building or Cortright Hall. Feature stories of original, witty, or imaginary nature will also be accepted.

Articles must be in by Wednesday noon if they are to appear in the following Wednesday morning issue. Letters to the editor, expressing opinions or criticisms will be published in the Dear Editor column. All copy of this type must be signed, but names will be withheld from print if specified.

There are several major Scribe positions still open. For all students interested in obtaining one, or doing any type of work for the Scribe, interviews will be held all this week from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. in the temporary Scribe office first floor (rear) of Cortright Hall.

Why not stop at the Scribe office and talk things over!

The Grippers

Every student body, regardless of size, shape or geographic location, is afflicted with a certain number of persons who feel it is their duty to gripe.

These righteous individuals put in no small amount of time at the task of pointing out each and every deficiency, evident or otherwise, in both the administrative and student program.

If the administration moves one way, it is throttling the student body, if it reverses, it has something up its sleeve. If the student government plans a social event, it is held in the wrong building, or the band isn't good enough. If the instructor gives a test he is a lousy bum, if he doesn't he is grading on personality—and so on far into the night.

This griping clan is made up of motley sifting of the student group. It includes four-year students who "had to come to college," transfer students who are here to "up my grade-point," the Bridgeport resident whose parents "won't let me go away to school," and the boys who "came here because I got a scholarship." And, strangely enough, magazine editors are often members in good standing.

The one characteristic of the whole tribe seems to be its determined effort to do as little about the situation as possible. Whenever a call goes out for help on decorations, guides for visitors, or assistance of any kind, the grippers start a mighty stampede—in the opposite direction. But when the big dance is held, or the exhibit gets under way, who's right there in the middle?

All of which might justify the following: Those who don't participate ought to keep their traps shut. Or as Red Skelton puts it, "PEOPLE! WHY RUN AROUND HALF DEAD WHEN YOU CAN BE BURIED FOR AS LITTLE AS $60?"—"The Collegian Reporter"—Morningside College.

Editorials

The writing of editorials poses many problems. To report and comment on campus happenings without showing bias or favoritism, and to mirror student opinion, is a delicate and difficult task.

Editorial writers actually walk a journalistic tight-rope—they cannot lose their balance. The editorial column can be the dynamic force behind a newspaper, as through its columns the policy of the paper is usually formulated. An editorial has the power to incite, inflame, throw orchids or scallions with equal vigor.

The use and function of editorials are modified in a college paper. Their scope is limited almost strictly to the campus and surrounding area. Through them existing problems which should be, and in some cases must be acted upon, are brought to light.

If there is a noticeable lack of student spirit, if there is poor participation in sports and other activities, these facts will be commented upon. Comment gives the spirit we want.

It is almost inevitable that an editorial column will trample on toes and ruffle feelings. Comment concerning editorials is satisfying as it makes us aware of the fact that they are being read. After all—it is a column concerning students.

Student Council Reports

By STEWART BAKER

President of Student Council

At the last official meeting of your Student Council, Pres. Jim Gaffney reported that more than 50% of the student body noted on the referendum concerning the Student Season Ticket, and 70% of these noted in favor of the Student Activities Ticket.

Your Council, therefore, approved the student acceptance of this plan which was fostered by the NSA. Throughout the entire Summer session Council members Roberta Olinier, Barry McLaughlin, Robert Coates, Robert Heath, Jim Quigley, and William Kennedy, sat in various sessions in preparation for the work that lay before them this coming Fall. At these sessions such things as extending the S. A. ticket to include faculty members, part-time students and night students were discussed. Several meetings were devoted to familiarizing new Council members with their duties.

In meetings called by President Halsey the Council members laid the ground work for the convocation exercises of the coming year. One of the outcomes of their meetings is to give the student body a better chance to meet its Council representatives. Another development was to plan an all-round type convocation that will appeal to the interest of all the students.

Working in conjunction with the Freshman Week Committee our Summer Council members advocated the plan "Know One Another Week," thereby giving the freshman an opportunity for getting acquainted not only with each other but with the upper classmen and the school as a community.

Prior to the closing of the Summer session I had the good fortune to be able to attend the National Student Association convention at the University of Michigan from August 23-31 and was pleased to report the progress of Bridgeport's NSA, which includes such things as Child Welfare activities, Campus Chest loan service to students, Discount card system, Freshman orientation program, faculty rating sheets, student athletic evaluation, work-study programs, and the student activity season ticket.

With a big year before us, all the members of the student Council extend an invitation to all who have any interest in their school whatsoever, to come to the meetings, get acquainted with your representatives and help us to solve the various problems that arise.

That the present Korean problem affects each and every one of us vitally, is well known. However, we must not lose sight of the fact that for approximately thirty hours a week during the next semester everyone will have a somewhat dual personality in the role-

Two From Liberia Enrolled At UB

Among the many new U-Bops who registered this semester are two imports from Liberia, who make a new high in our foreign student enrollment.

The latest, Hilda Luke, who flew from Liberia two weeks ago to become a resident student at the University, was greeted at the Municipal Airport by Augustine Jalla, also of Liberia, and Miss Betty Gene Hickey, women's counselor.

Hilda, who is interested in the field of pediatrics, is a daughter of a supervising engineer for the Light and Power Company in Liberia. Augustine, the son of a tribal chieftain, was brought to the United States with a scholarship procured by the Rev. Ralph T. Milligan, assistant at St. John's Episcopal Church.

of citizen, obligated to the rules of our community, and in the role of student obligated to the rules of our student community. Therefore, as impregnant as our problem may seem in a world crisis, they are very important to the proper and successful operation of an administration-faculty-student relationship on this campus.

The Council will be confronted this Fall with such problems as How to allocate the funds derived from the SA ticket, what to do about the inadequacy of the SCAC, how to bring about increased authority and responsibility for our class officers, and all the while to keep an eye on your Student Government Constitution and protect its sanctity.

As long as we of the Student Council never lose sight of the fact that we represent our students and as long as these students never allow us to, I am confident that this student community will continue to be a progressive and an ambitious group.

DON'T YOU THINK THREE HOLES IN THE HOOD WOULD ADD A LITTLE CHARACTER?

Foneyville Follies

By BILL O'BRIEN

Well, Students and future students—commonly called freshmen—welcome to UB for another scintillating and tintillating year . . . And remember that statistics prove that locomotives are not afraid of automobiles . . . Drive carefully, remain 1-A . . .

Boris Moskalenko and Norden Hahn had their pictures in Life last week. They were taken at the N. S. A. conference at Ann Arbor, Michigan . . . When asked for a comment on the event Boris replied "Well, we left the place arid." . . . What did he mean? . . .

Harvey Seltzer, of Student Union Fame, is one of the many men recalled by Uncle Sam . . . A complete list will be forthcoming . . . A girl is like money in a closed bank—the figure looks like a million, but you can't get your hands on it . . . Thank you Gabe Minotti . . .

Attention Dormitory Students . . . There aren't any more dormitories . . . Nor are there any more Dorm Proctors . . . We now have Residence Halls as well as Residence Hall Counselors . . . Did the R. H. C.'s get a raise with the title or a rise out of the title? . . .

Jim McDonald reports that Upsilon Beta Sigma received their pins during the Summer . . . The Question now is—How Long (That's a Chinaman's name) will it be before the young ladies are wearing them . . .

Fresh—"What is the hurry, Sir?" . . . Senior—"Well, Son, I have just purchased a textbook and I'm trying to get to class before they change the books again. . . . There is a moral to this!

The Dental Hygienists are expanding (Their enrolment, that is) . . . Selma Feld is the new Director of Social Activities for Phi Omicron Epsilon. . . . Chairwoman Jean Baduini is doing a great deal of work for the office staff hay-ride. . . . Thank you, Kay Kaminski.

And then there was the fellow who offered his new girl friend a Scotch and sofa . . . Chief of Police Frank (Digger) Castellucci warns all freshmen to be good boys and girls and wear their beanies. . . . Easy on them Frank, we were freshmen once.

Our own Joan interviewed Gov. Bowles on WNHC-TV last week and now television has been Recked . . . New Non-Credit Insurance Course Offered Evenings

A special non-credit course in property and casualty insurance will be offered in the Evening Division, starting tomorrow, announced by Dr. Eaton V. W. Read, dean of the College of Business Administration.

E. Kenwood Hawley, field representative for the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, Bridgeport, will be the instructor for the course. No college requirements are necessary for enrolment, but permission of the instructor must be obtained. All inquiries should be made at the evening division office on the first floor of the Engineering building. Who said that she knew what it meant,
When men asked her to dine,
Gave her cocktails and wine,
She knew what it meant—But she went.

'Be Happy-Go-Lucky' Is Theme of New Cigarette Contest

Here's a way to earn some easy money. You don't have to give away your fraternity pin or send in the top of your new convertible, you just compose a four line jingle singing the praises of Lucky Strike cigarettes and tying in with their sensational new "Be Happy-Go-Lucky" campaign. Each jingle accepted (and you may send in as many as you wish) will earn you $25. Any student can submit jingles—the more the merrier.

No lost moments to be spent in the library stacks looking up exacting words or rhymes. Just describe your smoking pleasure in a four line jingle. The situation depicted should be one of life on the campus.

It's easy, it's fun, and it's profitable. So get together (although who wants to split the $25) or write as many jingles as you can and send them to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 1...THE PUFFIN BIRD

"What's all the huffin' and puffin' about?
I've been a Puffin all my life!"

You may think this "bird" is funny—but he's no odder than many of the cigarette tests you're asked to make these days.

One puff of this brand—one sniff of that. A quick inhale—a fast exhale—and you're supposed to know what cigarette to smoke from then on. The sensible test doesn't have to rely on tricks and short cuts. It's a day-after-day, pack-after-pack tryout—for 30 days. That's the test Camel asks you to make! Smoke Camels regularly for 30 days. Your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) is the best possible proving ground for any cigarette. After you've made the Camel 30-Day Mildness Test, we believe you'll know why...

UB OPENS HOME GRID SLATE SATURDAY

Ithaca Opposition In Night Contest; Adelphi Tops UBs

Beaten in their season's opener last Saturday, UB's football team will inaugurate the home phase of the 1950 campaign when they play host to a strong Ithaca College eleven Saturday night at 8 P. M. in Candlelite Stadium.

This year's meeting will be the third between the two schools. On the two earlier occasions the upper New York State team triumphed, 7-0 in 1948 and 19-6 last year.

The visiting Bombers will have 20 lettermen returning from their '49 club which won four games in seven starts. Coached by Hal Hatch, Ithaca is again reported to have amassed a powerful aggregation.

UB will have an advantage over their foes in that Ithaca will be opening their 1950 seven-game slate while the locals have already had one outing.

However, in last Saturday's inaugural, the U-Bees were anything but a polished ball club. With the lone exception of Capt. Lou Saccone, who tallied both UB TD's on passes from Johnny (Babe) Longo and Frank Giannini, the squad was far below form.

The middle of the line was very weak and it was through these guard and tackle positions that Adelphi, (victors, 24-12) sparked by Sanford Saunders compiled the biggest hunks of their yards gained.

Another position which promises to give Head Coach Walt (Kay) Kondratovich fits before the season closes is fullback. Minus the services of John DiMenna and Tony Lombard, last year's line-plungers, Kay has been hard put to find an adequate replacement.

Outside of the two above mentioned weaknesses, little fault could be found with the boys' performances, except possibly that they were not in the best of condition, a statement deduced from the opinion that they looked to be a very, very tired team during the closing stages of the contest.

Luckily there were no serious injuries which will keep anyone from playing in Saturday's tussle. However, there were an exceptionally large number of minor injuries and trainer Tony Iannone was kept busy one and one-half hours after the final whistle repairing the players.

June May March was one enrolled at Oregon State Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore.

Line Coach Al Sherman. IM Football Opens Oct. 9; Committee Meets Tomorrow

Touch football, the first of the year's intramural sports is tentatively set to begin on Oct. 9, with team rosters due in the hands of IM director Tony Iannone no later than Oct. 5.

A very important meeting will be held Thursday evening at 6 P. M. in Bishop Hall of the members of the IM committee to elect a president for the coming term and to discuss arrangements and schedules for football and other activities. These include a newly devised point system.

Members of this group which is under the expert tutelage of Iannone include Lionel F. (Mac) McCabe, Jr., Jimmy Streett, Bill Bahner, Al Sency, and Jim Murray.

Iannone also said that two new sports will be added to the school's IM program. They are a cross-country meet listed for Oct. 18 and a Winter swimming meet.

In addition to the announcements concerning the Fall and Winter IM's, Iannone officially pronounced the Atoms winners of the Summer session's softball tournament.

Victors in the first round race, the Atoms were forced to down a tough Faculty team for the coveted bunting. Other teams in the final round-robin playoffs were the Seagulls and Seaside Hall, winners of the second round flag.

Basketball, Bowling Added To Female IM Program

Basketball and bowling will be featured for the first time on the list of girl intramural sports as IM czar Tony Iannone announced an enlarged athletic program for UB's co-eds.

In preparation for this new and larger offering slated to get under way in the late Fall, Iannone has issued a call to all girl sports representatives from the various dorms and sororities to contact him at 1 P. M. in the athletic office (Bishop Hall) on the afternoon of Oct. 2.

Other sports to be offered to the feminine set are softball, volleyball, tennis, badminton, and swimming.

A decade ago Alexander Hull, Jr., startled the college world when he entered the University of Washington at the ripe old age of 12! Hull was able to read before he was two, but he never attended grade school.

Early Bird Gets Worm; Glines Calls UB Hoopsters

Hoping to get a head start on his opponents, Head Basketball Coach Herb Glines has scheduled a meeting of all prospective team candidates for this year's squad in Bishop Hall basement at 4:00 P. M. Thursday.

Coach Glines declared that he will also list an early practice schedule for his team, the first drill coming about 10 days after Thursday's meeting.

Winners of 13 out of 23 starts last season, Glines will have nine returnees from the 1949-50 club, eight of them lettermen. Headed by Capt.-elect Dick LaBash, the monogram winners are Gus Seaman, Lou Saccone, John Liburd, Charlie Kozulko, George (Skip) Stanton, Pete Lazor, and Lew Elias. The ninth returning member of last season's team is Lou Radler, who was brought up to the varsity at the tail end of the campaign.

'Tam' on Run for X-Country Men

Cross-country coach Ed Tamashunas has posted a call for all team candidates to report at a meeting Thursday afternoon at 3:30 P. M. in Bishop Hall basement.

Assured of the return of only one letterman, Jack Gaston from his 1949 squad, Tamashunas when queried on the subject was quick to remark about the uncertainty of the material for the 1950 team. "Outside of Jack I have no idea what we will have to work with. I will be able to tell a bit better in about 10 days," he asserts.

Following is the 1950 cross-country schedule: Oct. 14, Iona (A); 20, White Plains Tech; 27, Arnold; Nov. 1, Newark (A); 4, Upsala (A); 11, Hofstra; 18, Fairfield; 22, Brooklyn Poly (A).

Iannone Groans; Soccer Prospects Not Nifty for '50

With only seven lettermen returning from last year's ill-fated soccer team, prospects again are not too bright for a winning season in 1950.

"We have very little outside of a small nucleus to start with," bemoans Coach Tony Iannone. "We lost a great deal of manpower from the 1949 squad (Record: one tie in six starts) including our Capt., Charlie Feld, and stalwarts Bob Jansen and Jabil Karom," he adds.

Iannone has hopes that newcomer Bob "Emmet" Lyons may fill one of the vacated posts and that three players, Burt Farrell, Sam Weinman, and Ed Saylor, who were with last season's team but did not earn letters, will sufficiently improve their play to aid the team this Fall.

Lettermen returning from 1949 include Charlie Kellogg, Ernie Boros, John Stuart, Tom Morrison, Gil Bealand, Walt Budney, and Oscar Lopez.

Soccer schedule for this Fall follows: Oct. 14, C. C. N. Y.; 17, Arnold (A); 21, Bradford-Durfee (A); 28, Seton Hall; Nov. 1, Arnold; 4, Panzer; 11, Siena (A); 15, Pratt.

$5 Will Get You 6 Tickets That Is

Athletic Director Herb Glines has announced that season football tickets can be purchased at the athletic office, located in the rear of Bishop Hall, and that they will be on sale throughout the coming six-game home schedule.

Priced at $5.00, a person they will save the admission price of two home games by buying a year's pass. Admission tariff at the gate will be $1.25.

Five of half-dozen contests, all Saturday affairs, will be played at night, kickoff time being 8 P. M. As in the past two campaigns, the U-Bees will use Candlelite Stadium as their home grounds.

The home slate consists of Sept. 30 (this Saturday) Ithaca; Oct. 7, Wilkes; 14, Arnold; 21, New Haven Teachers; Nov. 4, Loyola (Montreal); 18, Panzer (the lone daylight game).

Among 75,000,000 adults in the United States, there are almost one-and-two-thirds times as many complete illiterates as college graduates!

Sports Review

by BILL CHAMBAULT, JR.
SPORTS EDITOR

Last Saturday, UB opened its 1950 football season. Personally we feel that the least said about the 25-12 Adelphi setback the better. The team's performance was to put it bluntly, not good, and in fact was a bit of a disappointment from that which we expected.

After viewing the squad in its Fall workouts we, like everybody else, were agreed on certain points. The line with the exception of the ends was weak. The backfield again promised to be fast although on the light side with the lone question-mark being the fullback slot.

After watching with anguish the Adelphi disaster, we became of the firm opinion that this season may turn out to be a very long one indeed.

UB's line was weak in practice; Adelphi ripped our middle wide open. UB's backfield was fast in practice; with little protection from the forward wall they could not utilize their speed. Only once when Joe Finkelstein galloped 39 yards in the opening quarter only to have the touchdown nullified by a backfield-in-motion penalty was a UB ball-carrier able to go for any long yardage.

Although both UB scores came via the aerial route, Johnny (Babe) Longo, Don (Duck) Marchette, and Frank Giannini received such scant blocking from the linemen they were able to complete the low average of five passes in 18 throws. Three were intercepted, two setting up Adelphi's TDs, the third being run over immediately for the tally.

We quizzed Head Coach Walt (Kay) Kondratovich about what he thought of his team's performance and he was most firm in his statements that a great deal of work must be accomplished if the UBs are to be ready for their Saturday clash with Ithaca.

About the lone bright spot of the game was the great, repeat GREAT play of Capt. Lou Saccone, who his coach singled out as the best performer on the field. He caught both TD passes, the first on a difficult catch in the corner of the end zone. His blocking was sharp and his defensive work left very little to be desired.

We know one game does not make a season. However, it wasn't the loss itself that was bad, but the way the boys looked in losing that has given us this pessimistic attitude. We hope we are wrong in our views.

BETWEEN DOTS . . . Congratulations to Charlie Berndston and Marie D'Andrea on announcement of their engagement last week. Pretty Marie is Athletic Director Herb Glines' secretary while Charlie is student business manager of UB's athletic teams . . . Both Glines and Kondratovich have issued an urgent plea for basketball and football managers for this year. Contact either coach if you are interested . . . Johnny Barron, former UB basketball star and now a Bridgeport fireman does the driving on the back end of a hook-and-ladder . . . Phil Peterson another UB grad who is sportscaster on WNAB will air all UB grid games for 1950 . . . Leo Shalvoy, former student assistant to Glines and chief statistician at UB athletic contests, enters Columbia University this week to study for his master degree.

Bulletin Board Project of the Quarterback Club of Bridgeport is well on its way toward completion. When culminated, the plan will find the hanging of a bulletin board in the Snack Bar to be used for advertisements. Funds gained from the various advertisers will go to the Club's treasury.

Littlefield Urges Freshmen To Shun Defeatist Attitude

"One of the most valuable earmarks of a truly educated person is his ability to adjust to changing circumstances and conditions," declared Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, vice president, at the Freshman Convocation held last Friday in the Klein Auditorium. "Because of the times you students are required to exhibit that trait from this time forth as we cannot afford to wait until your graduation."

The speaker warned the 500 Freshmen not to be pessimistic over the world situation and declared that there are many, many reasons to be optimistic. "Here at the University of Bridgeport let us not have men and women who are complacent, pessimistic, and defeatist. Let us build a philosophy geared to tomorrow's world which is both realistic and forward looking. It seems to me that an important factor in your college success is going to be dependent on your faith in an acceptance of this kind of long-term philosophy," Dr. Littlefield.

The vice president offered the following helpful suggestions for the new students at the beginning of their first term at the University: 1. spend whatever time is necessary to understand thoroughly the total program and basic philosophy of your University; 2. use to the maximum the resources of your University, but make sure to intelligently balance your activities; 3. select and use the right kind of tools for your job; 4. evidence a real interest and enthusiasm for your job of going to college so that you are never caught unprepared.

James H. Halsey, University

president, presided at the Freshman Convocation and introduced Rev. David Owen Long of the University who gave the invocation and deans and directors of the University. Members of the Student Council were introduced by Stewart Baker, president of the council. Organ music was provided by Miss Barbara Voorhees, '53.

Dr. Abraham E. Knepler, assistant professor of psychology and sociology, and Dr. Anita P. Rless, assistant professor of sociology, attended the Governor's conference of the Connecticut Commission on Children and Youth last week at St. Joseph's college, West Hartford. The conference was called by Governor Bowles, preparatory to sending the Connecticut delegation to the decennial conference at the White House on children and youth.

Annie Nathan Meyer founded Barnard College, New York City, although she had never graduated from any school.
